CULP RESIGNS LOCAL POSTS; GETS S.S. JOB

C. C. Culp, York street, has resigned his position as purchasing agent and office manager of the Gettysburg furniture companies to accept the post of business manager of the new headquarters of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association, Harrisburg. His resignation is effective July 2.

Mr. Culp said he will continue to reside in Gettysburg.

The local man has been affiliated with the furniture companies here for 37 years, starting as clerk in 1901.

Chairman Of Board

Last January 22 Mr. Culp was elected chairman of the board of directors of the state sabbath school association. He had been a member of the board for 15 years. He succeeded John D. Duff, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Culp is also serving his 21st term as superintendent of the St. James Lutheran church Sunday school.

The state association controls the work of 10,731 Sunday schools in the 67 counties of the state with a combined membership of 1,854,933.

In addition to his many activities in the Lutheran church Mr. Culp is vice president and secretary of the Reaser Furniture company, secretary of the Gettysburg Panel Company and the Gettysburg Chair company and assistant secretary of the Gettysburg Furniture company. He has resigned these offices. A charter member of the local American Legion post, Mr. Culp served almost two years in the Army Air Corps in the first world war.

BEGIN CANNING SEASON HERE THIS AFTERNOON

One Adams county cannery had already started work canning peas, and another will start this afternoon, but the production this year will be considerably less than last year, canners said. "Overproduction" and "a glutted market" were given as the reasons, plus what one canner said was lack of interest in the purchase of eastern peas.

The B. F. Shriver company, Littlestown, started canning peas last Friday. Canning this crop will take about three weeks, and then tomatoes and corn will start in August.

The interim will be the shipping time for the peas.

Burgoon and Yingling, Gettysburg, will start canning peas this afternoon. Mr. Burgoon said, employing about 35 persons. Tomato canning will start early in August. The peas will run until about July 4.

Acreage Smaller

The acreage is smaller this year for peas, because of the wet weather which prevented farmers from getting in as much as last year, Mr. Burgoon added.

Another Littlestown canning company said that it was not canning peas at all this year, because of the glutted market. It will start later on tomatoes and string beans.

The pea crop runs from "fair" to "very good" this year, a spokesman for the Shriver company said. Prices will be slightly under last year, however, this concern paying $75 a ton instead of last year's price of $80.

Some root rot damaged the pea crop after it was planted. The overproduction of last year, however, was given as the principal reason for canning a smaller crop this year. The Shriver company's pack will be reduced about one-third.

Adams Apple, Aspers, started Monday freezing peas. The frozen peas will be shipped to the Campbell Soup company, the plant said.

There were two groups of piano numbers by Jesse Hagen of Gettysburg college. Mrs. Smoke discussed some significant works by and about the 19th century Russian novelist, Fyodor Dostoevsky.

M'PHERSON IS CEMETERY HEAD

Attorney Donald P. McPherson, Jr., was re-elected president of the Evergreen Cemetery association at a meeting of the lot holders held Monday evening at the arbitration room in the court house.

Charles A. Beales was elected vice president succeeding the late Clyde B. Stover, who died during the past year. George T. Raffensperger was re-elected secretary; the Gettysburg National bank, treasurer, and Howard C. Kitzmiller, superintendent.

The treasurer's report showed that there are now 1,570 endowed lots in the cemetery and that the endowment totals $82,067. The report showed that of the endowed funds $49,000 has been placed in government bonds, $17,000 in railroad bonds, $5,000 in federal savings and $2,500 on a mortgage. The lot holders also voted to purchase $9,300 addition government bonds with funds on hand.

The problem of roads was discussed at some length by the lot holders with the group reaching no decision on how to raise more money to maintain and build the driveways which each year become more extensive as additional lots are purchased. The funds for road building are taken from the sale of lots, while other funds endowing the lots are used for the purpose for which they were endowed—to provide for the care of the lots, it was pointed out. Maintenance of roads has become increasingly expensive, due to increased labor and material costs, association members pointed out.

Son Of Local Resident Has Narrow Escape From Floods

The tragedy of Portland's flood is told graphically by Mrs. Joseph Stanley in a letter to her mother-in-law here.

In letters sent to Mrs. Ethel M. Caskey, Bringham apartments, York street, Mrs. Stanley told of how she, her husband and child were driven from their home in Portland by the rising floods, how, when the waters receded, her husband, son of the local woman, went back to their house and stayed in it, throughout the night, in order to protect their home from looters who removed everything movable from the homes deserted by refugees from the flood waters.

Mr. Stanley attended the local schools here and was stationed near Portland while in the service. While there he married a Portland girl, and then found employment at the Yacht club at Portland after release from the service.

Family Is Safe

Mrs. Stanley reported the family safe and then told of their flight from the flood. One letter was written over a period of several days with Mrs. Stanley adding details as they occurred.

"First I'll tell you we are all safe and our furniture is okay," she wrote, then added "Sunday afternoon (May 30) about 4 a. m. came to (my home in Portland) by the dike (which had been constructed from sandbags along the road which separated their home from one of the bodies of water flowing off the Columbia river) and he told us to get Dick (their 1½-year-old son) out and he meant right now. We knew it must be serious so we grabbed only his (the baby's) food and clothing and left. This was after we heard the Vanport dike broke, and we were all pretty scared by then.

Homes Demolished

"We got to mom's (Mrs. Stanley's mother's home) and she was just sick from worry. Still we hadn't heard from Len (an uncle who lived in the Vanport area which was completely inundated) and his family. Finally they called and said they were okay but just got out in their car with only the clothes on their backs and a few blankets.

DISTRIBUTOR'S LICENSE LIFTED BY STATE BOARD

A Hanover beer distributor's license was suspended for 40 days by the Liquor Control Board Tuesday as the result of a party he gave for bartenders and tavern owners at the Knights of Columbus Home association in McSherrystown January 11.

The club's license was lifted by the board for a period of five days as punishment for its part in the affair.

At a hearing before the Liquor Control Board in April an officer for the board testified that beer for the party was furnished by Edward DeHaven Stiek, Hanover distributor. The PLCB yesterday ordered Stiek to close for 40 days, starting July 6. The club's suspension becomes effective July 7.

Official Testifies

During the board hearing Richard P. Klunk, secretary of the club, testified he and other officers did not know they were breaking the liquor laws in renting their establishment to a beer distributor and permitting him to bring his own beer into the place to serve to bartenders and retail liquor dealers invited to the party.

About 200 persons were at the event and two half-barrels of beer, partially filled, were seized and destroyed by agents of the board. Two full half-barrels, in a car outside the club, also belonging to the distributor, were confiscated.

The Liquor Board agent said the event was referred to on printed invitations as "Ed Stiek's Oyster party" and promised the invited persons "all the beer you can drink."

The railroad crew who made the last round trip consisted of Conductor C. C. Snyder, York R. D., conductor; Harry Brothers, York, engineer; W. S. Hamm, York, fireman; L. W. Parrish, Parkton, baggageman; W. T. McLaughlin, York, brakeman, and George D. Benton, York, mail clerk.

CAMP NAWAKWA OBSERVES ITS 20TH BIRTHDAY

"Christian leaders must live in Christ; that is the training given at Nawakwa," the Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, of the faculty of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary and vice president of the board of directors of Camp Nawakwa, declared Sunday afternoon in his address given in connection with the services at Nawakwa commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Lutheran leadership training camp near Arendtsville.

"Humanism alone dehumanizes," he declared. "Methods are no substitute for the Master. Training for leadership without God merely increases 'selfism.' Nawakwa teaching keeps the students from trying to make God walk with them. Nawakwa's students learn to walk with God. Nawakwa does not train youths to strive to be leaders, it teaches them to let God choose the leaders He wishes."

"God's Work Surpasses"

Using the lives of men mentioned in the Old Testament to illustrate his points—such as Moses being chosen by God to lead despite his apparent lack of qualifications—Doctor Hoover pointed out that "God's work in nature is always lovely, but the creation of saintly souls far surpasses the beauty of anything in nature. The colorful glory of the flowers on the platform here cannot be compared to the glory of God in human character. The fruits of the orchards hereabouts cannot be compared to the fruits of the spirit, and the pleasures and beauty of the paths through the woods cannot compare to walking with God."

"This leadership training camp is an evergreen sanctuary where students meet God and learn to be understanding in His presence. Here in the classroom the mind is given a vision of truth. Here at the sunset hour of prayer at Nawakwa temple, the students come to know God."

Lauds Dr. Fischer

Dr. J. Harold Mumper, of the parish and church school board of the United Lutheran Church in America, spoke on "Camp Nawakwa's Services to the Church."

"The late Dr. M. Madwin Fischer believed in young people and in the church," Doctor Mumper said. "He felt that with proper guidance and training that spirit of doing of youth could help to spread the constructive spirit of Christianity to the world. He dreamed of a camp where youth could learn to live and play together and be taught the truths of the church. Then there were no camps for youth in the Lutheran church. He talked to ministers and to laymen and sold them a large package of good goods. Many thought the scheme was too ambitious, but 20 years ago at this time of the year the Lutheran Leadership camp near Arendtsville, which is now known as Camp Nawakwa, held its first session. CAMP NAWAKWA

Wakwa has grown in buildings and in the interest of Lutheran youth. Today there are thousands of young people who have trained here. One minister, whom I know, has been interested in Nawakwa for 20 years and who has served three parishes during that time, told me:

"Without exception those young people have returned to become the leaders in the church. Several have become church councilmen, three have become pastors, three are missionaries to India and Africa and Sunday school teachers among that group, and all who came to Nawakwa have since become the most active members of the church."

Asset To Church

"Through the years Camp Nawakwa has provided leaders for U. S., Argentine, African, Indian, Chinese, Japanese and Canadian churches."

"And most of these were citizens of those countries who trained here." "The greatest asset the church has teaching leadership and Christian living are Camp Nawakwa and camps like it, which now stretch from coast to coast."

Rev. George H. Berkheimer, Ardenstville, director of the camp, who presided at the anniversary services, pointed out that Nawakwa is an Indian word meaning a "camp in the woods." The Senior Girls' choir sang a number of hymns during the course of the service including the Nawakwa song and "Glory and Honor," the Nawakwa hymn.

Rev. Robert H. Fischer, associate pastor of Zion Lutheran church, Sunbury, and a son of the founder of the camp, pronounced the invocation. Miss LaVene Grove, associate director, read the scripture lesson and Chaplain Marshall E. Breneman, Carlisle, a former camp director, gave the prayer. A tribute to former leaders was presented by Rev. George I. Melhorn, pastor of Moxham Lutheran church, Johnstown and Rev. John D. Foerster, associate director of intermediate and senior boys' camps, reported on the improvement program. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Ralph C. Sloop, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, New Cumberland.

TIGERS DEFEAT ATHLETICS 4-1 UNDER LIGHTS

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

The inauguration of night baseball in Detroit proved a smashing success—thanks to the strong left arm of Hal Newhouse.

The star Tiger southpaw, pitching the first home night game in Detroit history, gave added proof last night he still was the best lefthander in the American league when he twirled a two-hit 4-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

It was the seventh successive victory for Newhouse and the fifth in a row for the Tigers.

A near-capacity crowd of 54,480 which came to view the new $400,000 lighting plant saw the Tiger outfield provide Newhouse with all the backing he needed. Leftfielder Dick Wakefield belted his third home run of the season, Rightfielder Pat Mullin smashed his ninth four-bagger and Centerfielder Hoot Evers batted in the other two runs with a pair of singles.

It was Detroit's fifth success in six night engagements, the best record of any club in the majors. It also narrowed the third place New York Yankees' lead to only two games. The Yankees were beaten by the White Sox 9-8 in an 11-inning thriller in Chicago.

McCosky Injured
Barney McCosky crashed into the concrete wall while attempting to catch Wakefield's home run drive in the eighth and was carried off the field on a stretcher. It was believed the A's leftfielder escaped with a bruised back.

The Boston Red Sox spoiled Cleveland's homecoming by handing the Indians a 7-3 setback in a night game in Cleveland. The American league leaders, however, retained their three-game bulge over the runner-up A's.

Southpaw Rookie Mel Parnell gained his second victory of the season with a neat seven-hitter in outpitching Bob Lemon.

Johnny Sain pitched the Boston Braves into undisputed possession of the National league lead by defeating the Chicago Cubs in a night game in Boston, 6-3. Sain allowed only six hits in chalking up his seventh victory.

Cards Nip Phillies
Boston's win, coupled with Pittsburgh's 2-0 victory over the Giants in New York, enabled the Braves to break their first-place deadlock with the Giants. The Polo Grounds fell into a second place tie with Pittsburgh.

The fourth-place St. Louis Cardinals remained a game and a half off the pace by edging out the Phillies 2-1 in a night game in Philadelphia. The sixth place Dodgers nipped the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 in Brooklyn. It was the only game played in daylight.

The scheduled night game between the Washington Senators and the Browns in St. Louis was postponed because of rain and wet grounds.

Mangrum Favorite In Chicago Match

Chicago, June 16 (AP)—Slender Lloyd Mangrum rates the favorite in the $15,000 Chicago Victory Golf Tournament opening tomorrow, and if he wins he regains the money-earning lead from Ben Hogan.

Mangrum's target will be a $2,000 first prize in the 72-hole, four-day medal meet over the rolling acres of the swank Midlothian country club. If the 1946 National Open champion hits, he will boost his swag for the season to $17,944. This would put him nearly $400 ahead of Belin' Ben who has totaled $17,597 for the leadership with his successive triumphs in the National PGA and Open.

Ben is making a movie short in Hollywood instead of coming to Chicago to defend the Victory crown he won last year.

The ancients had no table forks.

Robinson Can Lose Crown On Scales

Chicago, June 16 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson today was faced by the threat of losing his welterweight title on the scales in his 15-round championship go against Challenger Bernard Docusen tomorrow night.

A great deal of mystery surrounded Robinson's exact weight for his third title defense before an estimated $15,000 at Comiskey Park. Robinson must weigh 147 on the official scales tomorrow to be considered defending welter champion. Estimates of his weight yesterday varied from 149 to 152.

The champion, defeated only once in 88 bouts over an eight-year period, possibly can sweat off his excess poundage.

But—if he fails—boxing rules dictate that he must vacate his crown and fight Docusen, 21-year-old cutie from New Orleans, in an overweight bout. The title then will be thrown up for grabs in a tourney of welter contenders.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON

New York, June 16 (AP)—The lights went out, the boxing writers settled themselves more or less comfortably and Harry Markson introduced Bud Palmer, the old Princeton basketball star now with the Knickerbockers, as operator of the movie projector. . . . "If the film seems shaky, I just got back from a class reunion," commented Palmer, without explaining how Princeton let a pro slip into the lineup even of a reunion parade. . . . Joe Louis shuffled forward and Jersey Joe Walcott moved away. . . . After a minute or so of this Jersey Joe stood his ground and banged away with a right to Louis' temple and the champion was on the floor. . . . Francis Albertanti, who had been Walcott's chief admirer in print before the December fight and who later confessed he had checked the dressing room to make sure Jersey Joe showed up, commented: "That was a heck of a round. I didn't see all that before—and for once I had a good seat."

DOWN AGAIN
Louis kept shuffling forward and, when he appeared all set to fling some punches, Jersey Joe would drop his hands and walk away. . . . Then in the fourth round some real fighting developed and once more Louis hit the deck. . . . The camera showed him looking bleary eyed and dazed when he got up, but nothing more happened. You remembered Joe's comment: "If Gus Lesnevich had me down like Walcott did, he would have knocked me out."

But Walcott kept stepping back or moving sideways and the champ couldn't punch fast enough or move fast enough to tag him. . . . The pictured rounds kept getting shorter as the duller parts of the fight were cut out.

UNHAPPY ENDING
The movie showing, to "refresh" the writers' minds, didn't change anyone's opinion of the fight. . . . It obviously showed Louis at his worst and Walcott as better than you had thought he was. . . . If they repeat the act next week and Louis doesn't force the fighting, the return bout can be one of the dullest in history. . . . But somehow you still feel that the champ can't be as bad again. . . . You expect him to be sharper, faster, more determined on the 23rd. . . . And if that's right, Jersey Joe had better not be too confident.

Reading Golfer Is Leading Qualifier
(By The Associated Press)
Nine birdies and 20 pars gave Johnny Markel of Reading's Berkshire country club the low score of 73-70—143 yesterday as qualifying rounds were held in the Pennsylvania State Amateur golf championships.

The title event is scheduled for the Lancaster country club course June 25-27.

Markel turned in his low card at York. He finished four strokes in front of Bob Davis, Hershey country club, who registered a 72-75—147.

Dick Semple, Jr., was the low man in the Pittsburgh area round, turning in a four-over-par 72-72—144. At Philadelphia, Sam Penace of Melrose and Jimmy McHale of Whitmarsh Valley, tied for medal round honors with 149 for the 36 holes.

The Gettysburg Legion baseball team pulled up to a .500 average in the Adams County baseball league by stopping the winning streak of Bendersville at six through a 6-3 victory gained on the high school field Tuesday evening before a good sized crowd.

Charley Kitzmiller turned in a fine pitching performance for the locals and gave up but four hits while his teammates combed three Bendersville hurlers for eight safeties.

Gettysburg scored a pair of runs in the opening inning on Hankey's double, a single by March and a pair of errors.

Four runs in the second frame put the game on ice. A walk to Doug Knox was followed by Kitzmiller being hit by a pitched ball. Hankey and March then pounded doubles and Wright singled to produce the runs.

Bendersville tabbed a run in the third and added two in the fourth on doubles by M. Kuntz and Ogden and an error.

Hanover moved into second place by lacing McSherrystown 13-2 at McSherrystown. Shanebrook hurled for the winners while Keefer, Gebhart, Frock and Sherdel toiled for the losers.

Orrtanna laced New Oxford 9-4 at New Oxford to remain in a second place tie with Hanover.

The game between Fairfield and Emmitsburg on the latter's field was rained out while the York Springs-Littlestown tilt at Littlestown was postponed due to a carnival occupying the Littlestown grounds.

PICKS LOUIS TO WIN BY DECISION

By JACK HAND

Pompton Lakes, N. J., June 16 (AP)—Ray (The Meat Wagon) Arcel, veteran trainer of 11 Joe Louis knock-out victims, thinks the champ will outlast Jersey Joe Walcott in 15 rounds a week from tonight.

"I like Louis by a decision," said Arcel after watching the heavy-weight king go four rounds against four different sparmates yesterday afternoon.

"The way he was throwing his left jab impressed me," he continued. "That's the way to fight Walcott jab, jab and more jab. Joe's jab is a whole lot sharper now than it was for the December fight."

"You don't expect Walcott to be any different this time. He'll walk around there, one step back and two to the side. I don't think Joe will be able to catch up with him. But if he can jab like he was doing out there against those sparring partners, he'll be able to pile up points and keep Walcott on the defense. He won't be getting hit with that right hand."

Arcel won't be in either corner this time, having just finished a fine job on Tony Zale. He is credited with helping co-managers Art Winch and Sam Pian alert Tony to the faults in Rocky Graziano's ring style.

Walcott On Edge
Grenloch, N. J., June 16 (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott is getting grumpy, not really very grumpy, because he is a kind-hearted man, but moody and withdrawing into his shell.

"Why he didn't exchange two words with me on our last hike," said his trainer, Dan Florio.

So everyone around the camp nods and says, yes, Jersey Joe is sharp now for his fight a week from tonight in Yankee Stadium against Joe Louis for the heavyweight championship of the world.

His weight is almost what it should be—196 pounds against an objective of 193 to 195. His timing of punches is good. His footwork is equal to what it was last December when he came within an eyelash of taking the crown from Louis on a decision.

"Everything is okay," said Dan, positively.

"I feel just as good now as I did the week before the last fight, if not a little better," said Walcott.

LIONS CANCEL GRID CONTEST WITH BULLETS

Gettysburg college's football team will have an open date October 30 instead of the home game scheduled with Albright, Athletic Director C. E. Billeheimer announced today.

Authorities at Albright canceled the Gettysburg game after they had a conflict in dates with Lebanon Valley and Gettysburg scheduled for the same day.

The date had been placed on the local book more than a year ago and had been confirmed by Albright authorities. In the meantime, Lebanon Valley had placed Albright on the book for the same date and this was supposedly confirmed by the Reading school officials.

A determined effort has been made to schedule another opponent for that day, but of the few schools having an open date none is suitable as a home foe for the Bullets.

The cancellation leaves Gettysburg with an eight-game schedule, three at home and four away.

"Ken" Knox's Gettysburg team scored a 5-4 victory over Bonneauville here Sunday afternoon before a large crowd but it meant nothing as far as the South Penn league standing is concerned inasmuch as the locals forfeited the game due to using ineligible players.

The locals led 3-1 going into the ninth but Bonneauville rallied to tie the score and then went ahead with a tally in the tenth. In the bottom half of the inning Tate grounded out. McCaullin singled and Ken Knox walked. Waddell was

The battle for third and fourth places and the resulting championship playoff posts in the Adams County Baseball league waxed even hotter as the result of games played over the week-end.
 Littlestown, 9-4, victor at New Oxford, moved into undisputed possession of third place and dropped New Oxford into a fourth place tie with McSherrystown.
 McSherrystown was beaten by York Springs 4-2 in a game played at McSherrystown.
 Doyle Rebert of Orrtanna pitched four-hit ball as the league leaders defeated Emmitsburg 4-2 at Orrtanna. Emmitsburg tabbed its only runs in the first inning on a double by Sterbinsky, an error and a double by Sites.
 The home club tied the score in the second when Hollinger walked four batsmen and an outfield fly produced another tally. Singles by C. Rebert and Herring, a walk to D. Rebert, and a single by K. Deardorff gave Orrtanna a run in the third. The final tally came in the sixth on a pass to Baltzley, his steal of second and a long double by K. Singley.
 Bendersville retained its hopes for a playoff position by drubbing Fairfield 10-1 at Bendersville Sun-hit by a pitched ball to fill the bases. Chrimer then replaced Sneringer on the mound for Bonneauville. Hankey bunted to score McCaullin with the tying run. "Slim" Johnson then smacked a drive over the right fielder's head to score Knox with the winning tally.

 Greenmount pulled a surprise by drubbing Cashtown 8-2 in a game played at Cashtown. J. Fissel, Greenmount hurler, paced his team with a pair of homeruns, one each in the fourth and sixth frames with Kennell aboard each time via singles.
 Granite came from behind to tab four runs in the seventh inning to nose out Barlow 5-4 at Granite and thereby gained a tie for fifth place with the defeated team. M. King, with three hits, paced the winners while J. Brennan poled two safeties for Barlow.
 The Conewago VFW team increased its first place margin to two full games by drubbing Heidlersburg 12-2 at Heidlersburg.
 Wenksville hit hard to gain an 11-5 decision at Brushtown.

ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE: During a short visit in Gettysburg, Wilbur A. Geiselman, son of Mrs. Sarah Geiselman, East Middle street, announced his marriage to Miss Margaret Brocius, of Berwick. The ceremony was performed at Bloomsburg on Thursday by the Rev. Samuel Barker, pastor of a Presbyterian church there.

Eighty-One Seniors Hear Address of William L. McPherson: Eighty-one seniors, four young women and seventy-seven young men, the largest class ever, were graduated Wednesday morning from Gettysburg College at the ninety-first commencement of that institution. Bruna Chapel was overflowing with relatives and friends of those graduating. After the salutatory given by Charles Glenwood Hughes, William L. McPherson, class of '33, editorial writer on the New York Tribune, delivered the address on the subject "Democracy and Quality." Calvin Zerbe delivered the valedictory address.

Among those receiving honorary degrees from the Rev. Dr. Clutz, acting head of the college, were: Professor Melancthon Coover, William L. McPherson, Professor Herbert C. Alleman, Rev. Charles W. Baker, Rev. Ross H. Stover. Today's Talk

COURTESY — WITH FLOWERS

In St. Louis a leading department store has an unusual event, which they term "Carnations for Courtesy" day. Everyone in the store upon that day wears a carnation — and just above that carnation, or in the region of the face, of course, is the smile that goes with it. What a store to go into on such a day — or any day thereafter, for such a spirit of courtesy, once created, does not die out — it spreads!

Every great store would do well at least to furnish each of its floor men or women with a carnation or other flower to wear each day. Flowers talk — especially when combined with courtesy on the part of the wearer. And what greater asset can any store have than this all too often neglected element of courtesy?

Prospective customers are not always kind and courteous to those whom they seek out for service, and it is a test both of character and disposition that challenges a clerk or manager. But courtesy always wins out. It's a long day for every worker, where there are so many clamoring to be waited upon — but this thing of courtesy will make even tired nerves and legs less tired.

Courtesy — with flowers — is a wonderful idea to inaugurate in any store, but courtesy with a smile and a happy desire to serve adequately at all times is an investment that later is sure to pay dividends in the pay envelope of the heart! We all search out such faithful folk, no matter where they may serve. There is no asset, in any store or institution, so valuable as this simple thing of courtesy.

Many of our great hotels could well adopt this courtesy idea. Most of them are at their wits' end to accommodate all who apply. But some day they may need the ones whom they turn down with a gruff "sorry," especially those who have long made their hotel the one of their selection in days gone by. No one can give what they haven't got — but they can always give courtesy! Courtesy isn't something that you buy. It's something that you already have — or ought to have — and which it is your privilege to give away.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Interview With a Tree."

NATURE'S FANCY WORK
Does Mother Nature now and then, Grown weary of producing men And beasts and fishes of the seas And elm and oak and maple trees, With artistry exquisite make Some little thing for beauty's sake?

Now flashing by from tree to tree The wild canaries I can see — Small birds of feathers black and gold. A child within his hand could hold — So beautiful, they seem to be Bright bits of breathing jewelry.

When resting from tasks that irk, Does Nature take up fancy work As women do, and there and then, With skill denied to maids and men, Such gems so lovely shape and mould As wild canaries, black and gold?

TRUMAN-STALIN MEETING TALK REVIVED AGAIN

By JAMES D. WHITE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Whether he intends it to or not, President Truman's remarks last week about "Old Joe Stalin" could reopen the question of a meeting with that particular Joe.

This has been in abeyance since the Potsdam meeting three years ago, which left much to be desired from many standpoints.

Since then, President Truman has said he has asked Premier Stalin to come to see him in Washington, and Mr. Stalin has stayed away. It has been widely inferred that neither party has been interested in going like the mountain to Mahomet.

Last week when Mr. Truman was talking about Mr. Stalin he tossed in a remark that the latter is a prisoner of the Politburo in Moscow. Checking on this at the State department, reporters found an air of surprise and a prevailing impression that Mr. Stalin is the Politburo's boss, not its prisoner.

Now Mr. Truman said absolutely nothing about seeing Mr. Stalin, but let us look into what his friendly reference could mean—bearing in mind that the next day at Berkeley he listed Soviet breaches of faith in detail and declared once more this country's peaceful intentions.

No Cold War Here
In doing so, he made the statement that America is not waging cold war, despite the way that expression has worked itself into the American idiom since the Truman doctrine of containing Communism was laid down more than a year ago and became the core of America's bipartisan foreign policy.

What Mr. Stalin thinks of all this may not be too important, especially if it is true that he forms his policy toward America by balancing America's own policy against her ability and willingness to back it up. What Mr. Stalin thinks may not be the point.

The point may be what the American people think, this being an election year.

Mr. Truman, long pledged to carry on in the footsteps of his predecessor, the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, may be following in his master's footsteps. In FDR's own words, he used to return, at such times as this, to a political position "just a little left of center."

Leaving out of this discussion the trumpeting of Mr. Carroll Reece that the president is bidding for the Communist vote, let us proceed on the assumption that Mr. Truman figures the country would not take kindly to better relations with Russia.

If this is so, a meeting with Stalin is conceivable, and such a meeting is easier because of what the President said last week. If it is the Politburo and not Mr. Stalin who is behind all the things Russia does, Mr. Stalin stands somewhat exonerated of these same things.

How such a meeting would be sandwiched into an election campaign is for those interested—if anyone is—to figure out.

Among other reasons, there could be two political reasons for a general shift toward better relations with Russia. One is the responsibility which Republicans share for the bipartisan foreign policy because of their Congressional majority since 1946.

The other was mentioned last week by James A. Farley, former Democratic national chairman. Farley said that the chances of Henry Wallace, third party presidential candidate, "will go up and down as the apparent danger of war increases and decreases."

"I don't think there is any danger of war," said Farley, "but if there does seem to be a great danger of it (Wallace) will get the vote of the peace loving people—the ones with sons."

In the past Mr. Farley has had some success at darning out the voting temper. The election is still more than four months off, and anything can happen, especially broad.

Could be that Mr. Truman has the same idea.

Aboard Truman Train, June 16 (AP)—President Truman will make brief talks Friday when his special train stops at Harrisburg and York, Pa., it was disclosed yesterday.

Dubois Firemen To Mark Anniversary

Dubois, Pa., June 16 (AP)—Back on a June day in 1888 the lumber and coal settlement of Dubois burned down. Seven city blocks were leveled and 400 persons made homeless as bucket brigades fought a losing battle against the hungry flames.

The fire burned itself out in 24 hours. The next day the town fire department was organized. The volunteer fire department has since grown to a force of 1,200 and, annually, on June 18 it celebrates its founding and the fire that gave it cause for being.

This year there will be a two-day celebration beginning with a big parade tomorrow. One hundred twenty units from northwest Pennsylvania fire departments will march. They will display the latest methods of fire prevention and fire fighting to show why the big event of 1888 will not be repeated.

ARAB CHIEFS MEETING AGAIN ON HOLY LAND

By MAX BOYD

Cairo, June 16 (AP)—The Arab countries' political delegates and army chiefs of staff met here today. Arab league Secretary-General Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha said their purpose was an "exploratory discussion" of the Palestine problem.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, left Rhodes for Cairo. He plans to meet with the Arab leaders here and then go to Tel Aviv Thursday to confer with Jewish authorities before returning to his Rhodes headquarters.

The Holy Land continued mostly quiet on the fifth day of a truce arranged by Bernadotte to pave the way for negotiations toward lasting peace there.

The Arab league political and military committees met together for five minutes and then the military leaders withdrew to a separate meeting.

No Truce Violations
Before the joint session, the secretary general told reporters the political committee was waiting for Bernadotte's reply to Arab charges of Jewish truce violations.

He said the mediator has not proposed formally to the Arabs any roundtable Arab-Jewish conference, though he may have made "verbal hints to some representatives." He would not forecast Arab acceptance or rejection of any such proposal.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, Bernadotte's assistant on Rhodes, sidestepped a yes-or-no answer whether a roundtable meeting was thought possible. But he asked: "What difference does it make how the talks are conducted if they end in peace?"

A mediation staff man on Rhodes said last night neither side reported any truce breaking yesterday. He remarked, "this was the first day we have heard nothing since the truce began."

Americans' Life Span Increasing

New York, June 16 (AP)—The average length of life of the American people very likely will exceed the Biblical three score and ten within a generation, the Metropolitan Life Insurance company says.

The company said yesterday the present expectancy of life, at birth, now is 67 years and its statisticians have figured that the average length of life will increase at least four years by 1975.

STATE JOINS IN PROBE BY GRAND JURY AT PHILA.

Philadelphia, June 16 (AP)—The commonwealth joined in today in the grand jury investigation of municipal scandals in Philadelphia.

Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey announced this in Harrisburg yesterday and said a deputy attorney general would be named to assist the Philadelphia district attorney's office—as requested by Judge Raymond MacNeille.

Chidsey also planned to confer with Col. C. M. Wilhelm, state police commissioner, with respect to sending troops to aid in the probe.

Probing Two Offices
The state cooperation will not be full scale. But Judge MacNeille left the door open for that later "if it appears that the proceedings are not being conducted satisfactorily."

The probe at present is directed at only two offices—those of receiver of taxes and director of supplies and purchases. Alleged tax shortages of almost $2,000,000 are involved in the scandals.

Meanwhile, there were these other developments in the probe:

Assistant City Solicitor Howard E. Stern was sworn in as acting director of the department of supplies and purchases, following city council approval of the ouster of Charles H. Grakelow by Mayor Bernard Samuel.

Lack Facilities
Grakelow still refused to vacate the post and charged his ouster was in direct violation of city charter provisions.

Judge MacNeille spent nearly two hours with Chidsey in Harrisburg yesterday.

The judge told reporters: "After our conversation today, I still feel that in order to have a proper investigation by the grand jury in Philadelphia of the situations that have been referred to them, and several other matters it may be necessary to refer to them, help is needed from the Department of Justice. In my opinion we are hampered because we are without adequate investigating facilities. In this regard we surely need state help."

Yorker Remains In Critical Condition

Fargo, N. D., June 16 (AP)—Charles Densel, 34, York, Pa., remained in a critical condition today after being wounded in a cafe shooting last Sunday.

Nick Paris, proprietor of the Cozy cafe, has been released on his own recognizance and in $5,000 bail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Detective Sgt. Charles E. Dunne said Paris told him he shot Densel during an argument over a dollar and after Densel had thrown two sugar bowls through one of the cafe windows.

Trucker Is Fatally Hurt Enroute Here

A trucker identified as Frank Juray, of Cleveland, Ohio, perished Tuesday when flames engulfed the cab of his truck after the van struck a light standard and a truck at the entrance to the Path Valley filling station along the Pennsylvania turnpike three-fourths of a mile west of the Willow Hill interchange.

State police of the Bedford substation established the trucker's identity through the Kramic Corp., of Cleveland, for whom he was hauling a cargo of aluminum awnings consigned to Dale Lawver of Gettysburg. Patrolman C. K. Pentz said Juray was the owner of the International truck.

The accident happened at 8:10 o'clock Tuesday morning as the trucker apparently attempted to enter the filling station driveway on the south side of the highway.

Hirohito Is Having Financial Troubles

Tokyo, June 16 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito appears to be having financial trouble because of Japan's inflation.

Reliable sources said today Hirohito was forced to draw on his private funds for 2,000,000 yen to meet family expenses, in addition to using 8,000,000 yen provided by the Japanese government.

The occupation exchange rate is 50 yen to $1, but its actual purchasing value is diminishing steadily.

Imperial household budget figures have not yet become public, but these sources said the increased expenses are reflected in the request for 26,000,000, instead of 8,000,000 yen for Hirohito's use.

Propose Minimum Pay For Ministers

Mercersburg, Pa., June 16 (AP)—The Mercersburg synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church studied today a proposal which would establish a minimum salary level of $2,400 for all pastors.

The proposal was made by the Rev. Irvin A. Raubenhold, synod president, in his annual report yesterday. He also recommended that the synod underwrite the amount in congregations unable to afford the $2,400 level.

The synod was told that 14 charges were filled in the past year, leaving only five vacancies. They are Marysville, Enola, East Berlin, Newport.

ALCOA STRIKE DUE ON SUNDAY

Pittsburgh, June 16 (AP)—The CIO-United Steelworkers union announced last night that a strike of 20,000 employees of the Aluminum Company of America has been set tentatively for midnight Sunday.

A union spokesman said the strike decision came after what he described as a breakdown of wage negotiations between the company and union.

Union locals, the spokesman said, will hold meetings to vote on a company offer of an eight per cent raise, but the locals will leave the final decision up to the international union which has already decided tentatively to call a strike.

The strike, if called, would be the first major walkout by the union since the general wage strike by some 850,000 members in January.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Soldiers Return: The Regiment of Volunteers arrived at Baltimore on Monday, in two vessels from Vera Cruz, and are encamped at Fort M'Henry. They will soon be discharged from the service. Capt. Barnard's company, in which were the young men from this neighborhood, Messrs. Miller, Walter, Ohler, Tiltus and Gulden, is among the number. They may, therefore, be expected home in a few days.

Since the above was in type, we learn with regret that three of the young men above mentioned, Messrs. Walter, Tiltus and Gulden, died on their passage from Mexico, and their remains were consigned to the deep.—We sympathize deeply with their friends, who were anxiously awaiting their arrival at home. Of the 7 young men who left this place for the war, but two survive, Messrs. Miller and Ohler. They are at Baltimore.

Married: On the 10th inst., by the Rev. J. Ulrich, Mr. Joseph Pickett, to Miss Susanna Kreiner—all of this county.

The meeting was organized by S. S. McCreary being appointed chairman, and Wm. B. McClellan, Secretary.

Dr. S. S. Schmucker, at the request of D. M. Smyser, Esq., made a statement of the facts connected with the purchase and sale of the Gettysburg Academy, for which it was ascertained, if the Borough desired to purchase, it would require at least twenty-one hundred dollars. On motion of A. R. Stevenson, it was unanimously resolved, that it is inexpedient to accept the proposition made by Dr. S. S. Schmucker.

On motion of D. M. Smyser, Esq., it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the different newspapers in the Borough, and that a copy of the same be handed to the Clerk of the Town Council, with a request that the same be inserted in the minutes of the Corporation.

On motion of A. B. Kurtz, Esq., the meeting adjourned.

Today's Talk

JOY IN THE MORNING

All life is in contrasts. Yesterday where I now write it was beautiful—perfect weather. Today it is gray and dull. Sorrow is but the shadow of happiness or of former joy. We learn to appreciate health by an occasional illness. We sleep in darkness to awake in the light.

We can each of us make life well worth while by meeting its every change and emergency in good heart, like a soldier facing battle. For if life isn't a battle, what is it? There is no gospel quite so important as that of willing and brave acceptance.

Self-dependence is a matter of will and selection. We are always happier and stronger for what we do for ourselves. We owe all to ourselves for inner guidance, and this mostly from God's text-book—Nature! All about us are change, decay, renewal and growth. Counterparts of ourselves.

There is far more beauty and encouragement in the world than there is ugliness and disappointment. Our appraisal of values tells the story of our lives, our hopes and our faith. We would not be happy for long with all coming our way. We would grow careless and forgetful. We would become neglectful and unappreciative as well as weak. We need strife and contest to make all effort creative.

There may be darkness in the valley but there is light on the other side of the hills. And in time it floods all space. Eternity is in the moments, no matter where they occur. Learning to live is a continual process. We select its pieces day by day—hour by hour. We learn how educational are pain and defeat.

Poetry is exultant prose. Prose literature would be dull indeed without its poetry. So would life be. You discover them both in nature. In the flower, the stem and leaf—and then the beauty of the bloom! You will recall that statement in the Bible where it says that weeping endureth for a night, but that joy cometh in the morning!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "As We Work"

NORMAL CHILDHOOD
If they were quiet all day long,
And didn't shout when playing,
That something would be wholly wrong

Should go without my saying,
And if they didn't cry in pain
When on the sidewalk falling,
I've said, and say it once again,
We'd have the doctor calling.

If they could play the whole day through
And never start a battle;
If of what one had dared to do
No one came in to tattle;
If they, as we believe they ought,
Met guests with manners formal,
We'd ask the doctor if he thought
Our children could be normal.

There is no doubt the children small
Will frequently upset us.
The toys they strew about the hall
So often seem to fret us.
But if they always did the way
We solemnly advise them,
Some fellow we should want to pay
To psycho-analyze them.

5 DEAD, 137 HURT IN RENO FIRE, BLAST

Reno, Nev., Aug. 16 (AP)—Fire, a shattering explosion and panic among several hundred spectators left a toll of five dead, one missing and 137 injured in Reno's worst tragedy in its history.

The fire broke out about 10 a. m. yesterday in a false-fronted frame and brick building in the old business district. It drew several hundred onlookers, massed around the scene just a few blocks east of the city's gambling quarter.

The sudden explosion and fire killed the fire chief of a nearby city and four men. A sixth, a Reno fireman, was missing. The Reno sprayed injury among the spectators. Some were trampled in the rush to get away.

Mysterious Blast
As firemen fought to prevent the blaze from spreading to adjoining buildings, a policeman warned the crowd to get back—that "there's dynamite in there."

"A few of the timid retreated," said John Sanford, city editor of the Reno Gazette. "The rest pushed closer. There was a roar. Smoke, shot through with spurts of flame, blanketed a half block of Lake street."

District Attorney Harold Taber said preliminary investigation disclosed no dynamite involved in the blast.

Taber and Reno detectives joined the fire department in a continuing investigation of the explosion and fire. Property damage was estimated, unofficially, at between $100,000 and $300,000.

Blow Shoes Off
The blast blew out the front of the building, which housed small shops, a vacant cafe and a small rooming house. A slot machine—one of those under repair in one of the shops—when booming across the street. Shoes were blown off some spectators.

While the injured were being rushed to three hospitals, rescue crews went into the still-smoldering ruins of the building to recover the bodies of these five victims:

Fire Chief Frank Hobson, 55, of adjacent Sparks; Capt. Glenn Davis, 35, and Fireman Earl B. Platt, both of the Reno fire department; and two civilian volunteer rescue workers, Domingo Galli, 28, and Bill Byron, about 50.

Missing was Harold Hodson, 26, Reno fireman who had the day off, but who was reported to have gone to the blaze.

Garden Activities For August Listed

To keep annuals blooming, be sure to pick them freely; do not permit them to go to seed.

Allow leaves to remain on pruned tomato plants because the fruit ripens best when not exposed to the sun's rays. Continue spraying or dusting.

Cut off flower stems of the hardy lupines just as soon as they have lost their beauty, to preserve the strength of the mother plants.

Prune old flower clusters from everblooming climbers and polyantha roses to encourage all-season bloom.

Give gladioli plants a thorough watering each week until blooming time.

Stop pinching outdoor chrysanthemum plants. Give the plants an application of a complete plant food. When watering, do the job early enough so the foliage will dry before nightfall.

Sow fresh delphinium seed as soon as it is available.

Oriental poppies that become dormant may be divided and replanted. Start a compost heap now while lawn clippings and other material are abundant.

Spring-planted trees and shrubs must not be neglected in spite of the fact that they may appear to have become established. New root growth is probably still too scant to supply moisture when hot summer weather comes. Whenever there is a little rainfall soak the trees thoroughly at ten-day to two-week intervals. The soil around them should be mulched as far as the branches reach to help preserve soil moisture.

SWEDEN MAKES SURPRISE SHOW, HAS 17 FIRSTS

London, Aug. 16 (AP)—American athletes were far and away the biggest point winners in the Olympic games which ended here Saturday, but it was Sweden which almost stole the show.

The versatile Swedes finished second to the Americans in all sports point totals as well as in the chief single sport, track and field.

The United States triumph was expected, as befitting one of the world's biggest, richest, best fed nations. But the spectacular showing of the Swedes was amazing for a country with less than 7,000,000 population.

In scoring 353 points to America's 662, the Swedes surpassed such bigger, traditionally athletic nations as France, which was third with 230.5 points, Hungary which was fourth with 201.5, Italy, fifth with 183, Great Britain, sixth with 170. All in all, the Swedes picked up 17 first places.

The Americans, of course, won the most gold medals, 38, and ranked first on a team basis in this wide variety of sports: men's track and field, men's and women's swimming, basketball, yachting, weight lifting and shooting (tied with Sweden). American teams were close up in several other classes of competition, including rowing, canoeing, horse riding and free style wrestling.

Muffins for breakfast can be made quickly if the dry ingredients are measured and sifted the night before.

NOW IS TIME TO SOW SEEDS OF BIENNIALS

As August reaches midway, the list of biennial and perennial seeds which can be sown advantageously narrows down considerably from the list of the previous month. The time remaining until continuous cold weather sets in is hardly more than 100 days, and by that time the plants must be well rooted, even if the top growth may still be fairly small. The late fall days represent an especially important period in the life of the plants because root activity continues for quite some time after the foliage has stopped growing.

All efforts should be concentrated on a group of seven, of which five are of major importance. They are delphinium, pansies, oriental poppies, hollyhock and sweet william. Of secondary importance are forget-me-nots and bellis or English daisies. All of these are easy to grow from seed, especially if a coldframe is available, but a special seedbed will prove almost as good.

Need Fresh Delphinium Seed
Delphiniums belonging to the hybrid strains are considered by many the most important of this short list. They are the most critical in that only fresh seed, matured during the last month or two, will give abundant germination. This same seed held over for spring sowing under average storage conditions will have lost much of its vitality, and while that may not appear as a serious loss, it nevertheless is important because the seeds representing the most delicate colors and the most desirable plants are the ones with the weakest constitutions.

Pansies sown in early August, even if somewhat neglected once they have germinated, can be counted on to give a continuous spring, summer and fall display next year if transplanted to the garden early next spring. Frame-forced commercial plants moved while in bloom receive such a serious setback that they cannot be relied on to last much beyond the spring season.

Oriental Poppies are best sown in small pots sunk into the cold-frame so that they may be transplanted to the garden next spring. Otherwise they must remain where sown until they have reached their dormant stage next summer.

Hollyhocks Effective
Hollyhocks are not nearly so much appreciated as their beauty warrants. They are vigorous growers, from five to seven feet tall, and lend themselves to imposing garden effects. Their upright growth gives them a stately appearance, and spaced from two to three feet apart they are one of the best plants for presenting an attractive background to beds and borders. A single row gives an effective dividing line, and for that purpose the bed need not be wider than two feet.

Although the double varieties are usually considered biennials, the plants are often best during the third year when anywhere from six to a dozen blooming spikes may grace them. They also are very effective as clumps in the larger garden or planted as corner accents in smaller ones.

Sweet William needs no recommendation. It is well known and greatly appreciated where colorful plants eighteen inches tall are wanted for a May and June display in beds and borders. They are available as seed in several good colors, and as a general rule the single-flowered sorts are considered superior to those bearing double blooms.

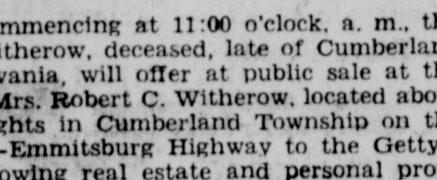

Tips on Starting
Forget-me-nots (Myosotis) and English daisies (Bellis) are best in cooler sections, as they quickly decline where hot summer weather is the rule. Myosotis alpestris and its varieties are spring bloomers and of biennial nature but pulstris, a perennial, flowers from May until frost if it has a cool, half-shaded position and a moderately moist loam soil.

All summer sowings must receive regular watering to keep the soil uniformly moist at least until the seeds have germinated. Shading the soil surface by means of burlap stretched over the frame is needed to maintain a fairly uniform degree of soil moisture. Thinning the seedlings before they begin to crowd one another is also important for the development of sturdy plants. The seedbed must, of course, have good drainage and the soil should be of average fertility. A good supply of humus well mixed with the soil encourages a good root system in addition to its ability to retain moisture for a longer period than soil alone.

Gambling With Late Snap Beans

Weather records maintained since 1899 indicate that the first killing frost of autumn can be expected in this region around October 10 to 30, with October 20 to 25 close to the probable date. Of course, an unusually early frost may nip tender crops in late September; and the first hard freeze may be delayed into early November.

These facts about fall weather offer a fairly accurate basis on which to judge the last safe date for planting snap beans in the home garden. Several excellent varieties reach edible size as green beans in 50 to 60 days after planting. Therefore, 60 days from August 16 is October 15. In other words, snap beans planted today should, if kept thriving, be in production before the first damaging frost arrives. Thereafter, some simple protection on threatening nights may carry the bearing plants through until early November.

Three practices are stressed with this late planting to avoid loss of valuable time in bringing the plants into production. First, prepare a mellow but firm seed bed and keep the soil moist over the row until germination is completed. Dry soils delay germination several days while hard soil crusts may prevent the tender cotyledons from pushing their way through the surface. Next, if the garden or planted as corner accents in smaller ones.

Sweet William needs no recommendation. It is well known and greatly appreciated where colorful plants eighteen inches tall are wanted for a May and June display in beds and borders. They are available as seed in several good colors, and as a general rule the single-flowered sorts are considered superior to those bearing double blooms.

soil is not fertile and otherwise adequate to hasten growth, apply a fertilizer containing a fair percentage of nitrogen. And third, do not allow the plants to slaken growth even for a few days for lack of water. Irrigate whenever the soil is dry.

TWO RESPIRES

Harrisburg, June 16 (P) — Two condemned killers were given respite today until the week of Monday, July 12. They are Grant Holley, 48, Philadelphia negro, and George Henry Chapman, 37, of Potter county. Holley had been sentenced to die in the electric chair early Monday, June 21 and Chapman a week later. Chapman pleaded guilty to shooting his wife last August 13 when she refused to say "pretty please" in asking him not to shoot her.

The real name of Tom Thumb, the famous midget, was Charles Stratton.

associations holding an exhibit of sporting goods was also discussed and the ministerium is being invited to set up a center at the grounds.

Plans to repair present facilities where needed and to put in additional facilities were discussed with no final decision reached on how much additional work can be done to the fair grounds, with that matter depending on the money available.

Seek More Guarantors

Various officials were given lists of names to contact during the next few weeks to see if 100 additional guarantors can be secured for the fair. So far, Arnold Orner, president, said about 172 men and women have agreed to put their names on notes stating they will be willing, if need be, to put up an amount of money not exceeding $100 each to help defray fair expenses.

The fair association expects the guarantors will never be called upon to back their signatures to the notes, with the notes to be used to provide collateral on which the association can borrow money.

Son Of Local

(a friends of Joseph Stanley), his cousin and Rob got a trailer and got in to get our clothes and what furniture they could. Joe took me in the car but they weren't letting women back into the area where our home is. I had to stand several miles back on the road waiting.

"Joe came back after what seemed like hours with the back of the car loaded with whatever he could get. Monday Joe and Stonie tried to get back to our house but they wouldn't let them in. In fact there were so many road blocks that we had a hard time getting back (after taking a short visit to some nearby relatives).

SELL, SHRIVER

Sell; selections by the Collegian-aires, a quartet composed of Albert Bair, Harold Sentz, Robert DeCroft and Robert Scholl. "Send Out Thy Light," "Sweet and Low" and "Cindy" all sung a capella.

The speaker was Dr. Arthur Tracy, Hampstead, who was introduced by the president, Stanley R. Sell, Littlestown. Dr. Tracy spoke of Henry Sell, the first Sell to settle in this vicinity and traced the family tree from 1716. Dr. Tracy informed his audience that Henry Sell was one of the makers of petitions for ownership of part of the land known as Diggs Choice, in the vicinity of Hanover. Selections were sung by the male quartet, including "All in the April Evening," "The Wiffenpoof Song" and "Dry Bones." There were remarks from Matthew W. Sell, Altoona, 80 year old son of the late Rev. James A. Sell, mentioned above, who said that another Sell reunion was being held at the same time in Blair county; remarks by Edward Gobrecht, Hanover, who said that John C. Gobrecht was the first by that name to come to America from Germany in 1753, and that he served the Hanover charge, of which Christ Reformed church was a part, as a minister and that he is buried in Hanover, and remarks by Jacob Sell.

Officers Elected
Election of officers was held with the following results: President, Emory Sell, East Berlin; vice president, William E. Sell, Hanover and secretary-treasurer, Kenneth D. Sell, Littlestown. Committee chairmen were also selected for the reunion next year which will be held on the third Sunday of August at the same place, music and program committee chairman, Mrs. Ralph Unger, near Littlestown; games, William E. Sell, Hanover and prizes, Mrs. John N. Sell. A report of the deaths that occurred in the family since the members of the clan.

A bouquet of gladioli occupied a prominent place in honor of the deceased members; and a moment of silence was observed and prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Hamm. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Hiltzbrink, 81, Littlestown, the oldest person present; to Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bair, Hanover, the couple married the longest, 49 years; to Margaret Mary Altoff, Littlestown, age nine months, the youngest girl present; to Michael Hoffman, four months old, the youngest boy present; to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roller, the couple married the shortest period of time, four months; to Mr. and Mrs. John Sell, children, Herbert, Anna Mae, Janet and Betty Lou, Littlestown, the largest family present, and to Peter Sell, Detroit, Mich., for coming the greatest distance to the reunion. Ice cream and soft drinks were provided for all present following the program, after which there was a period of games for children and adults, including soft ball, horseshoe pitching, badminton and peanut scrambles.

Shriver Reunion Held
The descendants of Christian K. and Alice Jane Fisher Shriver, gathered for the first reunion which this clan has held since 1942, at Benner's Grove near Barlow, Sunday. Election of officers was held with the following results: president, Chester Shriver, near Barlow; honorary president, D. Edward Shriver, Hanover; vice president, C. Eugene Shriver, Gettysburg; secretary, Marjorie Reifsnider, Hanover; assistant secretary, Mrs. Martha Haynes, Gettysburg; treasurer, Mrs. Clyde Williams, Gettysburg and historian, Harry C. Shriver, Bethesda, Md.

It was decided to hold the reunion again next year on the third Sunday of August, but the place of the meeting will be changed to Forest Park, Hanover. It was noted that the oldest person present was Annie Landers, 87, Emmitsburg; the second oldest, D. Edward Shriver, 86, Hanover, one of seven brothers who attended the reunions every year for many years prior to 1942; youngest person present, Christine Ann Landow, Greenbelt, Md., six and a half weeks old. Approximately 65 members of the clan were in attendance to enjoy the basket lunch and the games that were planned in the afternoon.

BURMA GIVES SIGNS OF GOING "COMMUNISTIC"

By JAMES D. WHITE

(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Southern Asia's first Socialist state, Burma, may be going Communist. That, at least, is indicated by an unconfirmed report from Rangoon, where Premier Thakin Nu is quoted as saying that Burma would "follow Russia" and that foreign property would be nationalized, probably with compensation. This report, although unconfirmed, is viewed with "grave concern" in London, where the stocks of British companies operating in Burma have dropped sharply in value. Its possible importance, however, far transcends the London stock market.

Asiatic Weathervane
Burma is an Asiatic weathervane, having chosen full independence instead of dominion status. It became free—and troubled with the problems of freedom—last January. The destruction of the war has not been rebuilt. There is inflation, shortages, discontent.

Oil fields will not be back into full production for two years. It will take an estimated ten years to restore the teakwood industry. Rice exports are about a third their pre-war volume.

Lawlessness prevails in the interior where dissident elements have guns picked up during the war. With one hand the government has been trying to stall off the independence demands of racial minorities like the Karens (who want a separate state on the great, fertile Irrawaddy delta) and with the other it has been fighting Communist uprisings. The Communist leader has a price on his head.

Aware of Fight
This is why it is difficult to accept at full face the report that Premier Thakin Nu threatens to lead his country into Communism.

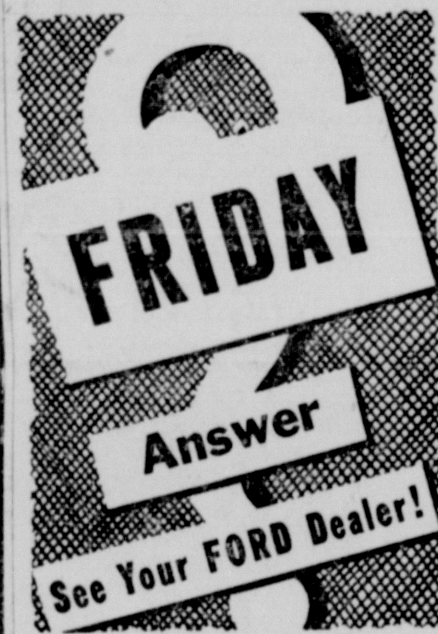

He may have done so, but it seems more likely he is trying to build up bargaining power against the British for the impending argument over nationalizing industry, as British property will come under this program.

Burmese are among millions of Asiaties, making up about half of humanity, who are keenly aware that there is a fight on between Communism and capitalistic Democracy in the west. They are hardly sold on either, but want to be on the winning side eventually, and until that is decided are interested chiefly in playing either or both sides for what they can get.

Second Beachhead?
In many cases they seem less critical of the untried imperialism of Russian Communism than they are of the capitalistic imperialism of western Europe, with which they have had plenty of intimate experience.

The relative merits of the two systems do not concern them particularly, except where the Soviet system seems to provide a handy way for some Oriental politicians to gain and maintain local power. (The Kuomintang in China, fighting the Communists, uses roughly the same one-party system.)

The point is that the hotter the cold war grows in the west, the higher will be the bargaining power of Asiatic countries like Burma.

It may be no accident, actually, that Soviet Russia recently has traded diplomatic missions with both Siam and Burma, and that the British are currently having much trouble with Communists in nearby Malaya.

Maybe a second front in the cold war has not yet been opened up in Asia, but Russia could hardly hope to find a better beachhead than Democracy's most discontented flank.

SYNOD OPPOSES BILL ON DRAFT

Chambersburg, Pa., June 16 (AP)—

The Pennsylvania synod of the Presbyterian church today urged defeat of the present draft bill, and called for an attitude of "steady patience" toward Russia.

The recommendations were made in a series of resolutions endorsed by the synod's annual convention. They were presented yesterday by the committee on social education and action.

"We condemn all pressures which resort to war and we urge unceasing efforts to understand the Russian point of view," the resolution on Russia asserted.

Other resolutions adopted by the synod, included:

1. Recommended a system of voluntary recruitment in place of the present draft measure.

2. Urged the United States to take an active part in settling Jewish-Arab differences in Palestine.

3. Endorsed the European Recovery Program and cautioned against its use as a "political weapon."

Six trustees were elected to the synod corporation replacing the previous 35 trustees. Those elected were: William S. Middleton, of Harrisburg; George H. Zacharie, of Philadelphia; John H. Ware, 3rd, of Oxford; Dr. Galus Slosser, of Pittsburgh; Rev. James Totter, of Bridgeville, and W. W. Heidelberg, of Lancaster. Ex-officio members are Dr. Glenn M. Shafer, of Carlisle, and Dr. Glenn Miller, of Butler.

Truman Assails 'Special Privilege'

Aboard Truman Train En Route

To Kansas City, Mo., June 16 (AP)—President Truman pictured himself today as a champion of the people in their struggle against "special privilege."

In platform talks, delivered in a neighborly over-the-back-fence tone, Mr. Truman carried on his appeal for votes as his homeward-bound campaign train moved eastward.

"The issue in this country is between special privilege and the people," he told a train-side crowd at Albuquerque, N. M., last night. "I think I represent the people, and I am trying to tell the people just how I represent them."

This is one of the themes at which he has hammered during nearly 60 talks since he left Washington June 3 on a cross-country pre-convention tour. Most of the talks have been from the rear platform of his private car.

Washington, June 16 (AP)— The Supreme Court Monday upheld constitutionality of the war contracts re-negotiation act. None of the justices dissented on the issue of constitutionality. Validity of the law was challenged by three companies which fought government efforts to recover $156,610 in asserted excessive profits made on contracts during the last war.

Thirty members were in attendance at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of St. John's Lutheran church on Sunday evening. The topic discussed by Miss Helen Myers was, "What is your Radio doing to you?" Miss Margaret Myers led the program which opened with a song and scripture lesson. Miss Helen Myers will serve as advisor to the group and Miss Jean Yealy will be the assistant advisor. The pastor, the Rev. Kenneth D. James, will act as pastor counselor. Next Sunday's topic will be, "What is your Reading Doing to You?" and it will be in charge of Miss Jean Yealy and Miss Helen Myers. Anyone attending the Adams County Council of Christian Education convention in St. John's church next Sunday afternoon and evening is cordially invited to attend Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Members of the society are requested to bring a box lunch and be at the church at 5 p. m.

Chief of Police Leon H. Gage arrested Richard C. Mummert, 124 East King street, Littlestown on Monday night for disorderly conduct, in front of Sonny's Lunch South Queen street. Mummert hit a minor and cut his lower lip. He was taken to the office of Dr. Leonard L. Potter for treatment. Mummert appeared before Burgess Charles R. Mehning on Tuesday evening and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $50. He paid $15 immediately and was released with the understanding that he will pay the balance on Friday.

The 23rd Biennial Convention of Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor will be held at Wilson college and Penn Hall college, Chambersburg, June 28, to July 3. There will be a noted speaker every evening including Dr. Daniel A. Poling, president, International Society of Christian Endeavor who will speak on Monday evening. Three Littlestown girls already have planned to attend this convention. They are Jean Yealy, Ruth Myers and Helen Myers.

Home From Hospital

Edwin P. Hood, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Hood, East King street, who had been a patient in the Wilmer Eye Clinic, at Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, returned home on Saturday, following an eye operation. He was injured several weeks ago when a piece of steel entered his eye while at work.

TO BURY MYTH AT CONVENTION

Philadelphia, June 16 (AP)—

The myth that Republican presidential nominations are decided in a smoke filled room will be buried here next week, Chairman Walter S. Hallanan told members of the GOP arrangements committee today.

"We all know that smear has been invented, nourished and spread by willful propagandists with new deal axes to grind," he told the committee as it met to complete plans for the largest convention in the party's history.

"It never did have any foundation in fact, and it cannot and will not survive under the bright glare of publicity that will be directed on every activity of our convention," he added.

Meanwhile, the convention contest committee faced six delegate disputes, two of them involving negro recognition. The platform committee prepared to start discussion tomorrow. And out at convention hall, where 16,000 delegates, alternates and favored spectators will gather Monday, the finishing touches were put on the physical aspects of the convalescence.

Ezra R. Whitla of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, chairman of the contest committee, said at least three of the delegate disputes—Georgia, South Carolina and Alaska—are "serious contests."

ATHLETICS AND INDIANS TAKE DOUBLEHEADERS

By JOE REICHLER

(By The Associated Press)
Lou Boudreau's mid-July prediction that his Cleveland Indians would win the American league pennant looks better than ever today.

Back home for a six-game stand against the lowly St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox, the Indians are in first place, a game and a half to the good over the Philadelphia Athletics. Two and a half in front of the Boston Red Sox and five ahead of the New York Yankees.

Cleveland's two Bobs — Feller and Lemon — yesterday hurled the Indians to a 6-2 and 8-0 sweep over the White Sox in Chicago.

In the opener Feller spaced 11 hits to rack up his 12th victory.

Lemon pitched one of his best games of the season in registering his seventh shutout in the nightcap. He thus became the first pitcher in the majors to win 16 games. He permitted seven singles.

Manager Lou Boudreau played a big part in both victories. He collected seven hits in 10 times at bat, scored three times and drove in three runs. He handled 15 chances flawlessly at shortstop.

The Athletics rebounded from their two defeats at the hands of the Yankees by whipping the Bronxites twice at the stadium 5-3 and 5-3. The first game went 10 innings. The twin triumph enabled the A's to take over second place from the Red Sox who were held to a split by the Senators in Washington. After Washington won the opener 5-4, the Sox came back to win the nightcap 8-7.

Brooklyn Beats Braves

In the remaining American league game, the Detroit Tigers came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to break a 1-1 tie and defeat the St. Louis Browns, 3-1.

Brooklyn climbed back within three games of the National league leading Braves by defeating them in Boston 4-2. The third place St. Louis Cardinals picked up a half game on the leaders, dividing a doubleheader with the Pirates in Pittsburgh. They now trail Boston by three and a half games. The Cards won the opener 8-3, but lost the nightcap 5-4.

The Phillies set back the fifth place New York Giants twice, 8-1 and 7-5, to move within three games of their victims. Chicago and Cincinnati divided a doubleheader. The Cubs won the opener, 7-6 and the Reds copped the second game, 5-0.

Southpaw Kenny Heintzelman of the Phils missed a no-hitter when Whitey Lockman tripled in the 7th for the Giants' only hit in the opener.

The largest Yankee stadium crowd of the year, 72,468, saw Joe DiMaggio hammer his 26th home run with one on in the ninth to enable the Yankees to overcome a 2-0 deficit in the opener. The A's, however, came roaring back with three runs off Ed Lopat in the 10th to put the Athletics in front again. DiMaggio tripled in another Yankee run in the last of the 10th, but Lou Brissie replaced winning pitcher Carl Scheib and retired Larry Berra for the third out. Mike Guerra's bases-loaded triple was the big blow for the A's in the nightcap.

Williams Gets 20th

The Red Sox almost pulled their first game out of the fire, scoring three runs in the ninth to fall one short. Ted Williams banged his 20th home run in that frame with one on off Forrest Thompson who had replaced winning pitcher Rae Scarborough. Stan Spence's home run with two on in the fifth proved the winning blow in the second game slugfest.

Freddy Hutchinson gained his ninth victory for the Tigers when hits by Dick Wakefield, Hal Wagner, Eddie Mayo and himself showed across two runs off Cliff Fannin in

Two Upsets Mark Baseball Tourney

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 16 (AP)—The National semi-pro baseball tournament moved into the third day of competition today with all 32 teams still in the running.

Two teams, however, will be eliminated by tonight.

Five games were scheduled, two in the afternoon and three at night. Two upsets marked yesterday's play. Glen Ridge, N. J., beat the Enid, Okla., Cardinals who represent a city that has won four national titles, 9-5, and Port Benning, Ga., defeated the Alpine, Tex., cowboys, one of last year's top teams, 3-1.

In other games Staunton, Va., Presidents edged Maxwell Field, Ala., 6-5, and the Fredericksburg, Pa., Chix trounced the Reno, Nev., Harrah's club, 6-3.

the ninth. It was Fannin's ninth loss against eight wins.

Ralph Branca held the Braves to seven hits in seven innings before yielding the Dodge pitching chores to Paul Minner and Hank Behrman. Ed (Duke) Snider put Branca in front in the first inning with a two-run homer and he never was headed.

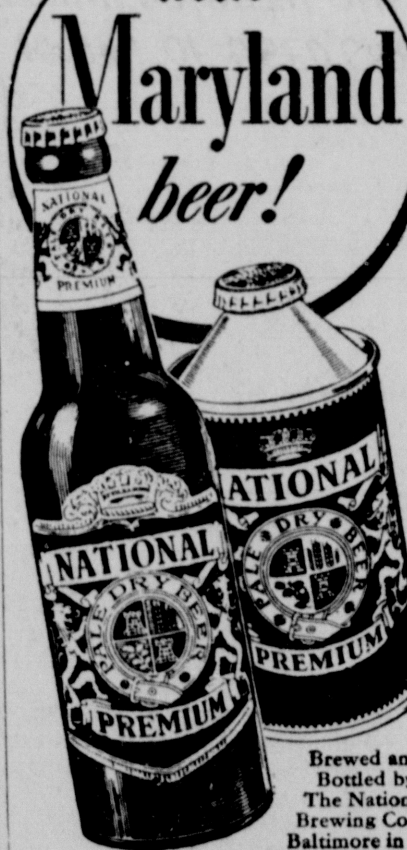

Ted Wilks, making his first start in two years for the Cards, scattered seven Pirate hits in winning the opener. The Pirates won the second game on Ralph Kiner's 30th home run which came in the fifth inning.

House Draft Foes Rally Around Plan To Delay Decision Until Next January

LEADERS STATE BILL WILL PASS BY BIG MARGIN

Washington, June 16 (AP)—House draft foes rallied hopefully today around a plan to keep the issue on ice until next January.

The idea was trotted out late yesterday by Rep. Shafer (R-Mich.). It drew quick support from several members opposing a peace-time return to selective service and a tentative endorsement from Rep. Short (R-Mo.) who is leading the floor fight against the bill.

House leaders said a final vote on the draft may not come until tomorrow, although they still hoped to finish it today. Chairman Andrews (R-N.Y.) of the House Armed Services committee predicted passage by a wide margin—and without the delayed-action Shafer proposal.

Plan On Aliens

Among other amendments which Andrews said he thought would be rejected was one by Rep. Gavin (R-Pa.) to allow the Armed Services to enlist up to 100,000 aliens for three-year terms. Upon completing their military service, the foreigners would be eligible for American citizenship.

The Senate-passed bill contains a similar proposal. But the number of aliens was put at 25,000 and their terms at five years.

The Shafer plan would hold off registration, as well as inductions until next January 31. The law would go into operation then only if the President proclaimed, and Congress agreed by formal resolution, that voluntary enlistments had not produced enough men for the armed forces.

Recruiting Plans

In the meantime, the services would have to conduct an intensive recruiting campaign. These would be major inducements:

1. Increasing the pay for all enlisted men 25 per cent.
2. Lowering the passing grade of the army's aptitude test from 80 to 70 points.
3. Accepting two-year enlistments with the same privileges as enlistments for longer terms.

The services would have to report monthly to a joint Congressional committee.

The bill before the House would hold up inductions for 75 days and then permit them only if the President formally ordered a start.

TO MAKE INGOTS

New York, June 16 (AP)—The naval industrial reserve plant at Birdsboro, Pa., has been leased by a new steel company, the Penn-Ohio steel corporation, formation of which was announced yesterday by a group of former officers of the Empire Steel corporation. Joseph B. Montgomery, Jr., of Mansfield, Ohio, president of the new firm, said Penn-Ohio plans to be in production of ingots within the next 30 days.

Flood Baby Found On Creek Bank

Nurse Betty Austin holds a 10-day-old baby found on bank of a creek after a flash flood hit the Pueblo, Colo. region. Body of baby's mother Mrs. Sam Clingen, was found four and a half miles downstream. Hospital officials said the baby apparently suffered no ill effects from the flood or 20 hours without food and exposure to rain, hail, cold night and followed by eight hours of hot sun.

THREE REASONS WHY CONGRESS SPEECHES GO ON

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 16 (AP)—Time is short . . . but the human impulse to say a few thousand well-chosen words is strong . . .

The house is debating the draft bill. Nobody doubts the outcome. The house will pass it, just as the senate did. We'll have a draft law.

The mind of every house member already must be made up on how he'll vote. Speechmaking at this point won't change his mind. At least, it shouldn't.

It wouldn't be congress without a debate.

Talk In Relays

So in relays congressmen parade up to the microphone and tee off . . . "My dear colleagues . . ." one of them starts. He's against the bill.

"My dear colleagues . . ." one of them starts. He's for the bill.

For or against, the parade goes on. Each congressman gets four or five minutes. He waves his arms, pounds the table, juts his chin, shouts.

Most of the speakers wander up, say their say, and wander back to their seats without applause from their fellows waiting for a chance to do the same thing.

Once in a while a certain congressman gets a good hand before he starts and when he finishes.

Short Draws Crowd

Dewey Short of Missouri, for instance. Short, a Republican who's against the bill, is probably the best speaker in the house.

When he got up to the microphone yesterday, congressmen who had been outside smoking threw away their cigarettes and flocked in to hear him. This was a tribute to Short's eloquence. It didn't mean his listeners were crowding in to be persuaded by what he said.

When the house put up the shutters for the day yesterday, this writer called one of the congressmen who had been listening all day. "Do you think anyone's mind was changed by all the speechmaking?" "Not one," he said.

Maybe Three Reasons

Why then bother to talk? Maybe three reasons:

1. Some congressmen feel so strongly about the draft, one way or the other, that they have to say something.
2. Some probably just like to hear themselves talk.
3. And some want to get on record so they can mail a copy of their speech to the voters back home.

It doesn't cost them a lot to mail their speeches back to the voters in their district and all 435 seats in the house are at stake in this year's elections.

It may cost a congressman $13 to $14 to have 1,000 copies of a page-long speech in the congressional record run off for him by the government printer. For each succeeding 1,000 copies, the cost is less.

And then the congressman can mail the speech postage free by enclosing it in a franked envelope.

FISH AND GAME GROUP PLANS TO HOLD CARNIVAL

Plans for the second annual carnival of the Upper Adams Fish and Game Association are scheduled for discussion Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the organization to be held at 7:30 o'clock in the Bendersville fire hall.

The nearly 300 members of the upper county group are planning to hold the carnival during the latter part of August on the Bendersville fire company grounds, in order to raise funds to aid in the conservation program sponsored by the sportsmen.

As part of this year's conservation program the association recently stocked Opossum creek with several thousand trout, spending over $600 to purchase the tiny fish which they hope will live and grow to become big fish well worth catching someday in the future.

Stocked 1,100 Fish

The last stocking, of about 1,100 fish, was made in Opossum creek about two weeks ago.

Association officials today expressed worry over a race between completion of the new disposal system at the plant is, but it was understood that the plant hopes that present installations will do the job until the entire new system can be completed. Previously some wastes escaped allegedly polluting Opossum creek and the company officials, as anxious as the sportsmen to keep the stream clean,

Adams Apple officials could not be immediately reached for comment on how close to completion the new disposal system at the plant is, but it was understood that the plant hopes that present installations will do the job until the entire new system can be completed. U.S. FRUITMEN TO TOUR COUNTY ORCHARD BELT

Nearly 300 orchardists — including a large number of Adams county fruit growers — are scheduled to attend the three-day session of the National Apple Institute starting Thursday at Harrisburg.

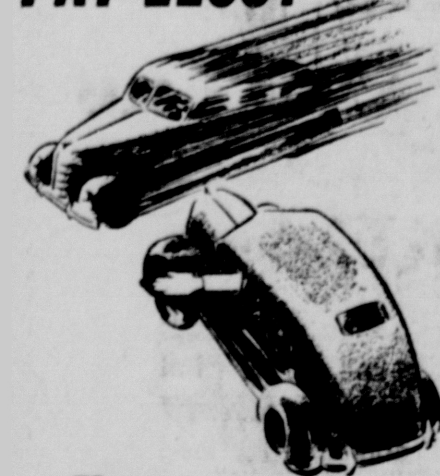

Included in the annual session will be a tour of Adams county orchards on Saturday and a number of Adams county women will take part on the committee to provide entertainment for the ladies at the national fruit growers meet.

Frederic E. Griest, Flora Dale, is to preside at the luncheon meeting of the growers at the Penn Harris Thursday. Sheldon Funk, Boyertown, will preside at one of the sessions Friday.

Mrs. Griest, Mrs. Robert Lott, Aspers R. D., and Mrs. John Peters, Gardners, are among the local women who are members of the entertainment committee.

Estimates of the nation's leading commercial apple growers on the size of this year's crop are to be announced during the sessions according to Miles Horst, state agriculture secretary, who added that preliminary reports from growers indicate that the 1948 crop will be considerably below that of last year.

Among the speakers scheduled are Horst and E. A. Meyer, formerly of Biglerville, now with the research and marketing administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

As for Pennsylvania apples, the state growers are expected to report that late varieties have a much smaller set of fruit than previously expected because cool, wet weather at blossoming time limited the activity of bees for pollination. At least that report was made this week by the State Department of Agriculture which based its report on a check made of various apple growers in the state.

ARENDTSTVILLE BUILDING BOOMS

Arendtville is experiencing a building boom with about $80,000 going into construction of a number of dwellings and two business establishments.

One of the biggest construction jobs, that of enlarging the Arendtville National bank is well along, with the contractor hoping to be finished by September, when the bank will celebrate its 40th anniversary. The bank is being enlarged, new offices constructed, and a recreation center for the community is being built there.

On Gettysburg street three new houses are being built for William G. Kane, Glenn A. Bream and Ira Cutshall. David Houck is having a new house built on Main street and Russell Kane and Charles Harper are having homes constructed on South High street. Otho Carey is building on Chambersburg street and Clyde Sell is constructing a new auto body shop at the corner of South High and Chambersburg streets.

STATE NOW 4TH WITH POULTRY

When Pennsylvania farm flocks set an all-time record in producing more than three billion eggs last year they advanced the national standing of the Keystone state in the poultry industry, according to facts compiled recently by the Department of Agriculture from Federal-State reports.

Production of 3,046,000,000 eggs in 1947 was sufficient to advance Pennsylvania from fourth to third place in the United States in total output, the records reveal. At the same time the State advanced from third to second in the value of eggs produced. The state retained its fourth place in the number of chickens inventoried on farms on January 1, and still holds its place as second in value of chickens on farms.
Farm cash income from sale of chickens in 1947 amounted to $41,995,000 and income from eggs amounted to $124,066,000. The total from both sources was approximately $166,000,000 compared with $150,000,000 in 1946, and is a new record.

The Keystone state raises more turkeys than any other east of the Mississippi river, ranking sixth in the Nation in both number and value. Three counties are among the first 100 counties in the United Market Outlook Improved — Recent events have improved the farm products market situation, according to W. F. Johnstone, extension agricultural economist of the Pennsylvania State college. Income tax reduction and increased military spending have made more purchasing power available to consumers with resulting larger spending for food products.
